Primary and Elected Officer Updates

➤ Director Update

- Thank you all for continuing to please register for our meetings by logging into our website at <http://www.folsomhog.org> and accessing the calendar. It is critical to register by 5pm on Sunday so we can make a courtesy call to Round Table to let them know how many people plan to attend. It is better to register as a yes and not show than not register and then show up as the restaurant may be short staffed.

- Round Table offers a 10% Discount for our HOG meetings - excluding Buffet and Alcoholic Beverages. Make sure to put your alcohol is on a separate tab to get the discount on non-buffet food items.
- Merchandise Officer has leftover shirts from our Poker Run for Sale – All Shirts are $20.00. See Mike Mentjox for sizes. We also have 28 ride pins left over for the first 28 people to buy a shirt. Pins may also be purchased separately.
 - Breakin' Out Event Critique
 - Very Positive Event response from all. We had 242 participants. 182 Bikes – 122 single riders, 60 two-ups. We have 28 ride pins remaining and 190 left over wristbands.
 - Ride Route – Great; Have more Road Captains and keep riders moving.
 - American Legion Hall well equipped for the event. Ensure there is a speaker outside on the patio next year.
 - Thanks to All - Staffing Volunteers for Stops as well as the multiple HOG members who helped out with the group rides who are not necessarily road captains. Thank you!!
 - Len Guidera – thanks to everyone who stepped up to help. A very successful event. Don't forget to stop by the shop on Saturday's for Chill and Grill.
 - Weather Permitting - Cookout for May General Meeting at Orangevale Community Park on Oak Avenue at Filbert (across from Casa Robles High School) - Burgers - Dogs - Chips – Water - Pepsi – Condiments
 - Guest Speaker: Rod Mitchell – Director of Sacramento HOG 295 – spoke on behalf of the Sac HOG Casino Classic. April 27, 2019 - 8:30am $20 per/person. Lunch, pin and one raffle ticket. Food truck. Raffle tickets sold before the ride. $200 high hand, $100 low hand. New route north, partly near the river. This is a Folsom HOG priority ride – Stan is the ride leader. Leave shop about 7:30 am. The ride is a western cowboy theme.
 - Guest Speaker: Robert Cortez (and Heidi) – October Ride to Daytona Bike Fest. Long ride – two weeks averaging about 650 miles per day. Four bikes already confirmed. See Robert or Heidi for more information.

➤ Assistant Director Update
